

Dear Mr. Domingo Egon Q. Cayosa,

The Law Society of Hong Kong's First Belt and Road Webinar themed "Look beyond COVID-19: Connect and Unite through Belt and Road and LawTech" will be organised on Monday, 23 November 2020 at 2:00pm – 6:00pm (Hong Kong time) via video conferencing platform Zoom. The Webinar will be conducted in English with simultaneous interpretation from English to Mandarin and vice versa.

The Webinar aims at discussing the effects of the pandemic on contractual obligations; the growing use of technology in the legal industry; and reforms on corporate rescue laws in countries along the Belt and Road. It is expected to attract around 500 delegates from local and overseas jurisdictions along the Belt and Road, providing a platform for professional exchange of knowledge and experience among legal practitioners.

The Webinar is complimentary and first-come, first-served. It would be our pleasure if you and your members can join us for this meaningful event to meet with legal practitioners, businessmen, members of chambers of commerce and government officials around the world. For more information and online registration, please refer to the enclosed tentative programme and event leaflet.

In the meantime, should you require further information on this event, Ms. Ella Chan, our Assistant Director of Communications and External Affairs, would be pleased to offer assistance. She could be reached at +852 2846 0593 or adceag@hklawsoc.org.hk.

We look forward to welcoming you at the Webinar.

Yours sincerely,

The Law Society of Hong Kong
